Wilson appointed to full term on Elba School Board

Josh Wilson addresses the Elba City Council
During Coffee County Commission meeting

Sheriff reports investigation of vandalism incident at county landfill

by Linda Hodge, Editor

Coffee County Commissioners approved three requests made by county engineer Randy Tindell during the Tuesday, May 27, meeting of the commission.

Coffee County Commission chairman Tom Grimsley (right) is shown presenting a proclamation of appreciation Tuesday, May 27, to Robert Lolley during the Coffee County Commission meeting. Commissioners voted during their May 12th meeting to present the award to Lolley recognizing him for his many years of service with the local Veterans Affairs office. During that meeting, Lolley announced his retirement and thanked the commission for its support during the years. Following Tuesday's presentation, Lolley again thanked the commission for its support and said he enjoyed a good relationship with the Coffee County Commission during his years of service.

Stephen Boggs plans to seek election as Mayor of Elba

Stephen "Steve" Boggs this week announced his intent to qualify and seek election as Mayor of Elba in the upcoming municipal election to be held August 26 in the City of Elba. Boggs is a United States Navy Veteran. He served aboard the aircraft carrier USS Eisenhower in the Middle East during Desert Storm and Somalia, as well as, in Central Europe during the Balkans Crisis. More recently, Boggs has served as a production supervisor at Sikorsky Aircraft in Troy, and as an aircraft maintenance manager at Fort Rucker. He currently works for TSI Aerospace as an aviation and engineering recruiting consultant.

Steve attends Covenant Community Church, and is a member of the VFW and American Legion. In his spare time he enjoys fishing, gardening and spending time with his family. He also volunteers his time and resources to assist Veterans, disabled persons and to help people who have been affected by layoffs find jobs. Boggs resides on Elm Avenue in Elba with his wife, Dorothy, and their son, Antony. "Over the past twelve years, we have seen the loss of hundreds of jobs and the closure of numerous local businesses," Boggs said. "Along with the increase in unemployment, we have also experienced a rise in crime and drug abuse. We have also seen an unexplained increase of more than 60 percent in our electric rates, which is making life difficult for retirees and people on fixed incomes. But, we can turn all of that around and put Elba back on the right track."

Stephen "Steve" Boggs

Boggs said Elba is a close-knit community with outstanding people and numerous untapped resources. "We have the potential to far exceed our former glory as the cultural and economic center of the Wiregrass," he said. "In order to reach this goal, we need to build a viable, sustainable long-term plan for improving emergency services, repairing our city infrastructure, strengthening our local economy, and stopping crime in its tracks. Together we can build a brighter future for our children and grandchildren."

The Elba City Council unanimously appointed Josh Wilson to a full term on the Elba City School Board Tuesday evening. Wilson is completing three years of service to the school system after being named to an unexpired term when Dr. Dyess resigned in mid-term.

There has been much speculation during the last several weeks on just who the city council would name to this important position in the community.

Wilson told the school board members at their last meeting that he had enjoyed serving and hoped to be reappointed. He met with the city council during a work session last week and expressed this desire to them. He also addressed concerns council members voiced on behalf of their constituents at that meeting.

Tuesday evening Wilson was one of four to address the council on this appointment. He again expressed his support of the schools and a desire to continue serving the school system.

He thanked the council for the opportunity to serve and said that the children are Elba's greatest asset. He added that he had served very willingly and while it had been challenging at times, it was also rewarding.

"It has been an honor to work with Mr. Weeks and his staff. The results speak for themselves," he added. "I pledge to continue to serve if it is your desire and would appreciate the opportunity to serve again."

Sheriff Sutton also reported his department currently is investigating an incident that took place at the county landfill some time Sunday night. He said there were acts of vandalism to some of the landfill vehicles. The sheriff also said it appears there was an attempt to steal some equipment from the county.

County EMA director John Talles encouraged citizens to be aware that the hurricane season officially begins on June 1. He urged citizens to have their disaster kits together and ready just in case it is needed.

The next scheduled Coffee County Commission meeting is Monday, June 9, at 9 a.m. in the community room of the county complex in New Brockton.

Commissioner J.L. Weeks encouraged citizens to attend the county commission meetings to become more aware of the happenings of the county.

Voters asked to go to the polls Tuesday, June 3, for Primary Elections

In four county commission races and one county board of education race, voters will be asked to cast their ballots Tuesday, June 3.

The Democratic Primary Election Ballot will feature two county races in two separate districts.

For those voting in District One, the Democratic nomination for the Coffee County Commission seat is being sought by three candidates: Tommie Brooks Jr., James E. (Jimmy) Bryan and Dean Smith. If needed, a run-off election in this primary race will be held July 15.

The Democratic Primary also will feature a race for the Coffee County Commission, District 3, seat. Here, Robert G. Stephens will face Claude R. (Ronny) Nicholson.

Other races on the Democratic Primary Election ballot include:

- For United States Senator – Vivian Davis Figures, Johnny Swanson III or Mark "No NCAA" Townsend
- For United States Representative, 2nd Congressional District – Bobby Bright, Candice Crawley or Cheryl Sabel
- For Court of Criminal Appeals Judge, Place No. 1 – Steve Dodd or Clyde Jones
- For Court of Criminal Appeals Judge, Place No. 2 – Jeff Duffey, Jon Hayden or Aimee Cobb Smith

The Republican Primary Election ballot features three separate county races for three separate districts.

Voters choosing the Republican ballot in districts two and four will be asked to vote on their county commission seat. In the Coffee County Commission, District 2, race, Kim Ellis will challenge J.L. Weeks.

In the Coffee County Commission, District 4, race, three candidates are vying for the spot including Frank (Al) Britt, Jason F. Bruce and Helen Taylor. If needed, the runoff for this election will be held July 15.

District One voters choosing the Republican ballot will be asked to make a decision in nominating their Republican candidate for the Coffee County Board of Education seat. Here, candidates Joseph (Joey) Arnold and Brian R. McLeod are trying to win the

THE NEW BROCKTON TOWN COUNCIL will meet Monday, June 2, at 7 p.m., in the council chambers at New Brockton Town Hall.

Destiny Hudson spoke in support of Wilson for another term. She noted he had helped her with a problem at the school on more than one occasion and did it in a "very professional and timely manner."

Hudson urged the council not to let other people's personal agenda guide their actions.

Superintendent Danny Weeks spoke and praised the school board for being "very supportive of the school system."

He said he was concerned about such a meeting (the council meeting) "including discussions of any of my board members." Weeks added that he had never known of such a discussion to occur during his tenure with the Elba schools.

The superintendent acknowledged that the weeks of discussions on this board appointment had fragmented his staff. "I want you to know, if you have a problem about our schools I will talk with you at any time," he said.

"We have a very good school board and I would go far but for any one of them," said Weeks.

Board member Gappa Wise addressed the council and read from a prepared statement in which he praised Mr. Wilson. He noted that he had heard comments of the council may be overstepping their duties. He added that neither should the school board overstep their duties in support of any one member.

Wise added that there have been discussions of the school board overstepping their duties in support of any one member.

Do We Pray Without Believing?

If you can, please read Acts 12:14 & 15 along with this article. Verse 15 states, "And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said he, It is his angel."

You can say prayers verbally or in your mind but still doubt in your heart. At times God will answer such prayers as HE did when Peter was in prison, scheduled for execution. The believers in Jerusalem were powerless to free him, so they prayed. When God released Peter their reaction revealed the doubt in their hearts. They argued that Peter could not possibly be free, even as he stood outside knowing on the door! Is it possible to be a "person of prayer" and yet not have faith? Is it possible to fool yourself into believing that just because you ask God for help, you have faith in HIS ability to meet your request? Is your faith so weak that you are surprised when God answers your prayer? As a child of God, you ought to expect God to answer your prayers!! Do you ask God to do something without adjusting your life to what you are asking God for? If you are praying for revival, how are you preparing for it's coming? If you are praying for forgiveness, are you still living with the guilt of what you asked God for His forgiveness? If you have asked God to provide for your needs, do you remain worried and anxious?

Ask God to increase your faith and get into His Word, that's how it comes. Then begin living a life that reflects absolute trust in Him. Learn to pray through praise and "thank" Him for the answer. Out of His grace and mercy God may choose to answer your prayers despite your lack of faith, but many more prayers will be answered because of your faith in God. Not because you simply ask but because you ask in faith believing and thereby expecting God to answer your request.

God honors faith and Hebrews 11:6 lets us know how important it is: "But without faith it is impossible to please Him: for he that cometh to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him."

We serve a loving compassionate God, and He longs to meet all your needs. God Bless!!

Sixth grade class takes annual overnight field trip

by Brittany Davis

On Thursday, May 1, Elba Elementary School sixth graders loaded a charter bus and headed for Atlanta, Georgia for their much-anticipated field trip.

Upon arrival at Embassy Suites in downtown Atlanta, students unloaded luggage, checked into rooms and enjoyed a walk through Centennial Olympic Park to the World of Coca-Cola. Here they learned the history of the world's most

The group explored an extensive collection of Coke memorabilia and examined artwork by world-renowned pop culture artist, Andy Warhol. They enjoyed a 3-D movie that demonstrated the inner workings of a Coke dispensing machine.

However, most reported that the best part of the W.C.C. was the free tasting gallery where students got to taste Coke flavors from all around the world!

Students returned to Embassy Suites for a dip in the pool and then enjoyed an "all-you-can-eat" buffet at Cici's Pizza.

Friday brought the highlight of the trip, which was a trip to the Georgia Aquarium. Students came face-to-face with many odd creatures of the sea.

The giant whale shark was one feature, as were the playful sea otters, which were characters of a novel, that many had read in class.

The visit to the Aquarium also included a 3-D movie, which educated students on the role of humans in caring for the world's oceans.

Everyone who attended the trip agreed it was definitely a great field trip. 6th graders and their teachers thank Ms. Brackins, Officer Blair, Ms. E.R., Mr. and Mrs. Greg Bailey, Mr. Pete Cash, Mr. John Silar and Mr. Nathaniel Russell for accompanying them on the trip and sharing in the fun!

Annual D.A.R.E. graduation held at Elba Elementary School

by Brittany Davis

This year's D.A.R.E. Class of 2008 had a very successful year.

The students learned a lot about drugs and alcohol. Hopefully, the D.A.R.E. students will remember what Officer Dean Blair taught them not only through their high school years, but also for the rest of their lives.

The students had a great year, and had a lot of fun. All D.A.R.E. students received a Certificate of Achievement and several were awarded special awards during the D.A.R.E. graduation ceremony held Friday, May 16, at Elba Elementary School.

Graduation was held for the 2008 D.A.R.E. Class on Friday, May 16th

2008 D.A.R.E. Student of the year is Morgan Matthews.

Elementary SGA enjoys busy year

by Kim Blue

Each morning, the representatives announced the thought of the day as well as the Pledge of Allegiance. They assisted with various school events such as Grandparents Day and Jumpstart for Kindergarten.

Everyone had a fun and enjoyable year.

Coffee County Board of Education
District One

Our county schools are the hub of activity in the communities of Kinston, New Brockton and Zion Chapel, but our schools also have a tremendous impact on Coffee County at large. Everyday that I go to my job in Elba, I have the opportunity to work with people who are graduates of and/or have children in each of our area schools. Our company is a melting pot with employees from many different places. However, the majority of our well-trained and dedicated employees began their process of lifelong learning in one of our schools located within a 20-mile radius of our office. I take great pride in seeing graduates from each of our local schools move on to succeed in our business or other area organizations. I am also grateful that our business benefits from the educational resources provided by our local schools. Maintaining a path of continuous progress in our area schools is the foundation for future growth and prosperity in our area and I am passionate about seeing our young people succeed.

One thing I have pledged not to do in this campaign is to make promises I can not keep. However, as your representative on the Coffee County Board of Education I promise that:

- I will provide leadership and direction to our school system administration
- I will not dodge tough decisions that I may face in the future
- I will always make decisions that I believe are in the best interest of our children
- I will listen to anyone with ideas or concerns about our schools
- I will provide accountability regarding Board decisions
- I will strive for continuous improvement in the process of educating and developing our children

Our public school administration faces many challenges in the process of balancing priorities including attracting and retaining high quality teachers, complying with federal mandates that sometimes have unintended consequences such as the No Child Left Behind Act, dealing with budgetary constraints and uncertainties, maintaining infrastructure, keeping pace with ever changing technology and providing a positive environment for the educational and social development of our children. We need progressive minded individuals on our local school board to provide leadership and insight in dealing with these and many other challenges and opportunities that our schools will face in the future. I am up to the challenge and look forward to the opportunity to be your representative. I am willing to roll up my sleeves and do whatever is necessary to help our schools be successful. Your vote on June 3rd will be greatly appreciated, and I look forward to serving you on the Coffee County Board of Education for District One.

Zion Chapel fourth graders learn history through coloring

The Alabama Division of the Confederate and General Edmond Winchester Rucker Chapter sponsored a coloring contest for fourth grade students at Zion Chapel Elementary School.

This contest was sponsored in April as part of the celebration of Confederate History and Heritage Month in Alabama. 60 fourth grade students participated in the contest.

The winners were: first place, Chase Peoples; second place, Emily Bell; and third place, Sadie Grantham. These students each received a certificate and a $5 cash prize.

Although this was called a coloring contest, it was actually much more. There was information about The War Between the States for the students to read and questions to answer, so this was a history lesson, a reading lesson, and a test of reading comprehension.

The contest also included a

Sadie Grantham, Chase Peoples and Emily Bell

lesson in following directions as the student colored the picture portraying General Robert E. Lee on his beloved horse Traveller. When the student followed the directions, the colors in the picture were historically accurate.

All three winners answered all questions correctly and followed the directions as they accurately colored the picture. The winner's papers will be entered in the state competition.

THE PRESSBOX

BY RICKY MULARZ, SPORTS EDITOR

The high price of gas hit home once again last week when Melissa called from Troy and said I needed to meet her halfway to Elba and give her enough gas money to make it home for the week-end. Instead of giving her the money I just filled up her tank, which should give her enough fuel to make it home more than once in the coming weeks.

FOR WHAT IT IS WORTH....

 The Elba Tigers held their annual spring game last week and it was easy to see the Tigers will have plenty of quality players when they hit the field next season. Elba did lose its starting quarterback and a few linemen last season, but all three quarterbacks that called the signals Friday night showed promise and the Tigers are definitely blessed with speed in the backfield and at receiver. The line also looked big and strong from my spot on the field, and I have to believe that with a good summer of hard work next season could be fun for the Tigers and their fans.

 Kingston and Zion Chapel both shared wins in spring jamborees over the past two weeks. The Bulldogs joined with Red Level to claim a wild win over the combination of Samson and Rocky Bayou, Florida, while the Rebels joined with Arnton to post a win over the joint squad from Barbour County and G.W. Long. I have always liked the jamborees but had teams combine their talents, because it leads to new friendships and respect on the field and in such a game there is never really a loser.

 The football coaching carousel has been spinning in recent weeks, but slowed down a little last week with the hiring of new head coaches at Daleville, Andalusia and Wicksburg. The Warhawks plucked its new head man from McGill-Toolen, in Mobile, while the folks over in Andalusia picked a former assistant coach to come back and lead the program and over in Wicksburg the Panthers caged up a former coach at G.W. Long. While none of the hirings included big name coaches, all seemed to satisfy supporters in the cities and filled the bill.

 The biggest news in recent weeks on the high school front was the resignation of Wayne Grant at Pike County. Coach Grant has led the Bulldogs to numerous state championships over the years and is considered one of the top coaches around. However, he announced plans to step down a few weeks back and ever since has had his name associated with every opening in the area. As of now Coach Grant is still on staff at Pike County as a teacher and the Bulldogs are hunting for a new head coach.

 The Wiregrass Sports Hall of Fame will induct its 2008 class this summer and included among the honorees is former Elba High standout Leon Davis. Davis was a standout in both basketball and baseball while at Elba, played professional baseball in the Class D leagues and later founded and coached the basketball program at Montevallo College. Coach Davis has been gone for years, but will come back home for the honor and is without a doubt one of the brightest stars in Elba High sports history.

 In closing... The youth baseball and softball leagues are winding down in Elba and that means it is almost time to pick All-Star teams. All the players that worked hard at practice and gave their all in the games are stars. However, only 12 players can be named to the All-Star teams, which means many more will be left off. I urge the parents to support the players that made the squads and assure their own children that didn't make the teams that they are special and if they keep working one day they too will be on an All-Star team.

Sign-up period for FY2008 Conservation Security Program has been extended

NRCS Acting State Conservationist Zona Beatty announced today that the sign-up period for the FY2008 Conservation Security Program (CSP) has been extended until May 30, 2008. This will give producers two additional weeks to apply for the program in the Upper/Lower Chocomahtee River Watershed. The watershed covers the following counties in South Alabama: Barbour, Henry, Dale, Coffee, Houston, and Geneva.

A sign-up extension announcement is scheduled to be published in the Federal Register on May 9, 2008. Originally, the CSP sign-up was scheduled to run from April 18 May 16, 2008.

"USDA-NRCS recognized the inopportune timing of this year's sign-up and that farmers and ranchers are busy in their fields. We wanted to give them as much time as possible," said Beatty. "USDA is extending the sign-up to allow producers adequate time to gather natural resource information and complete the required self-assessment and applicant interview."

CSP is a voluntary conservation program that supports ongoing stewardship of private, agricultural working lands and rewards those producers who are meeting the highest standards of conservation and environmental management on their operations. "The purpose of CSP is to reward the best conservation farmers and encourage others to become better stewards of the land," said Beatty. This unique program of payments in five to ten year contracts.

To apply for CSP, potential participants must complete a CSP self-assessment workbook available on the Web at <http://www.nrcs.usda.gov/programs/csp>.

Once applicants have completed the CSP self-assessment workbook of their farm operations, they should contact their local Natural Resources Conservation Service Office at the Farm Service Center in New Brockton, or call 334-894-5581 ext. 3 for an appointment. For more information about CSP and eligibility requirements, please visit the Alabama NRCS website at <http://www.alnrcs.usda.gov/programs/csp08/index.html>.

Thank You For Your Support

I want to take this opportunity to thank each of you for the kind words my family and I have received from you. It has been a pleasure to meet so many people for the first time, and to become re-acquainted with others. I have done my best to make this campaign about real issues, and to be more than just another generic candidate without a real platform. Talking to you about the issues which concern me has been an honor, and listening to your concerns has been a privilege. I feel that we have already accomplished something special because I have had the opportunity to speak about many issues which concern parents, students, and employees of our schools. I hope I have said or done something to represent the best of what Coffee County has to offer. I appreciate your prayers, support, and the generosity with which you have welcomed my message and allowed me to take up a moment of your time. God bless you all, and I hope to continue speaking on behalf of you, our children, grandchildren, and schools as your Republican nominee for Coffee County Board of Education District One. Your vote of support in the June 3rd Republican Primary is greatly appreciated.

• Timely Jungle opens Saturday - Saturday, June 2nd, 1928, is to be an eventful day in Elba. It will mark the opening of the first Timely Jungle store for Elba at Harper's Old Grocery Store under the ownership and personal management of E.L. Harper and G.L. Bell. The Timely Jungle system of self-service grocery stores is not new. It is seven years old and claims to have revolutionized the retail grocery business, and with their slogan of "save a nickel on a quarter," to have rubberized the pocket books of half a million families. It is now serving in 12 southern states.

Covenant Community Church of Elba graduates second class from Dave Ramsey's Financial Peace University

Covenant Community Church in Elba recently graduated its second class of participants from Dave Ramsey's Financial Peace University.

Financial Peace University (FPU), the 13-week program taught by Dave Ramsey, has helped more than 350,000 families positively change their financial future. This life-changing program teaches families and individuals how to handle their money through common-sense principles and small group accountability.

As they work on a total money makeover, the average family pays off $5,300 in debt and saves $2,700 in the first 91 days after beginning FPU and is completely out of debt, except for the mortgage, in 18 to 24 months.

"It is very rewarding and heartwarming to see everyone having so much fun while making life-changing decisions and developing financial goals," said Myrna Cotton, class coordinator and former FPU participant. "God truly empowered their progress as each week they excitedly shared their victory stories."

"There is something for everyone in this program whether you are barely making ends meet, just trying to plan for retirement, or seeking to build wealth. No matter what your financial situation, you will find FPU to be the best motivational tool available across the nation to help you attain financial peace," said Charlotte Goodson, former FPU participant.

SEVERAL PAINTINGS HAVE RECENTLY BEEN ON DISPLAY AT THE ELBA PUBLIC LIBRARY. All of these have been painted by local artists. Kay Wilson, librarian, says that the Elba Public Library displays paintings once per year for those who take a painting class, taught by Linda Rawls of Rose Hill, Ala. at the Elba Recreation Center. Wilson also encourages anyone who has a hobby that they would like displayed to contact her at the Elba Public Library.
